

Please click on the circles for more information.

inner circle

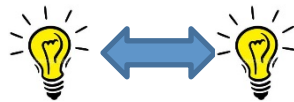

This is the exclusive part of the Global Success Club.

- It is restricted and reserved only for innovative medium-sized companies.
- It will have only a few selected large enterprises as best-practice members.

Within the circle executives can

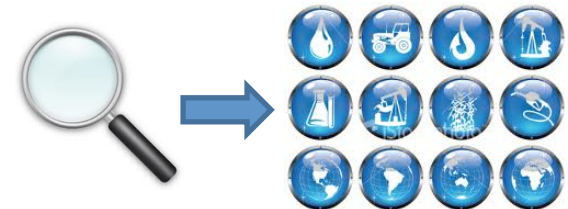

Share experiences

Exchange Ideas

Create own contact groups

Search / target specific know how in target countries / industries

Back to the graph

Media Partners

Media partners offer the members editorial content on relevant topics such as

International business

Innovation

Industrial insights

----- and much more..

Back to the graph

Excellence and Prestige Partners

Excellence partners are international service providing companies which support medium-sized companies and are among the top businesses in their sector.

For example, Law firms, Consulting firms, Financial advisors, Training companies

They create value for the network by sharing their expertise

- In the community through blogs, webinars & forums
- As guest speakers in round tables and workshops

Prestige partners are international service providing companies or global brands with an excellent reputation. They offer their products or services to the inner circle members at special conditions through the Global Success Club card.

For example, Airlines, Hotels, Manufacturing companies serving both B2C and B2B

Back to the graph

Associations and Organizations

These are associations and organizations who are committed to support medium-sized companies, International Business and Innovation Development.

They will be a part of the events of the Global Success Club as cooperation partners and also use the platform to announce their own events and other activities.

As community members they can interact with the international enterprises and others involved in this global network.

Back to the graph

Business Development and Promotion Agencies

Business Development and Promotion Agencies of the governments can also be cooperation partners and community members.

- They send executives as speakers to the larger events of the Global Success Club.
- They also provide the platform with related content and requests for proposals.

Back to the graph

Educational Institutions

Educational Institutions can benefit from the platform by having

- Direct access to innovative companies which could be sponsors for their research projects

Educational Institutions contribute to the platform and inner circle members by

- Sharing their expertise
- Inspiring innovations

Further, their representatives & research professors can also attend the events as speakers or participants.

Back to the graph

Consular Corps

Consular corps are regularly invited to join the larger events of the Global Success Club not only as speakers but also as participants of seminars, discussions and exclusive gatherings like fireside chats.

For more information please visit us at www.globalsuccess-club.net or contact us directly:

Ms. Isinay Kemmler

✉: ikemmler@globalsuccess.de

☎: +49 69 45004430

Back to the graph